

Mr. Ki Young Kim has been actively involved in service/application and cellular standards since March 2000, and currently, he is a lead person in LG Electronics for oneM2M, 3GPP and OMA standardization activities.
(Email: kiyoung17.kim@lge.com, Phone: +82-10-5600-5663)

Brief Curriculum Vitae

Mr. Kim received a Master Degree of Computer Science from Sogang University in 1990. He has been working at LG Electronics since 1990, and has been involved and responsible for various mobile communication related projects.

Current Employment

Dec. 2005 ~ current	Team Leader of Advance Mobile Protocol standardization, LGE, Korea - Focusing on mobile protocol and service standardization activities for oneM2M, 3GPP and OMA
Mar. 2000 ~ Sep. 2005	Leader of North America Standardization, LGEMR, USA - Focusing on North America Standardization activities for 3GPP2 and TIA
Jan. 1990 ~ Mar. 2000	Chief Research Engineer, LGIC, Korea - Focusing on CDMA & Switching System Development

Standards Experience

Jan. 2014 ~ Current	TTA oneM2M PG Chairman
Nov. 2011 ~ Current	OMA BOD MEMBER
Mar. 2011 ~ Mar. 2013	3GPP TSG CT Vice Chairman
Mar. 2007 ~ Mar. 2011	3GPP TSG SA Vice Chairman
Dec. 2004 ~ May 2007	3GPP2 TSG X Vice Chairman

He has experienced 20+ years of cellular standards, engineering, development, and project management of wireless/wireline technologies for communication systems.